1. GENERAL

The Division of STEM undertakes teaching and research in a range of core disciplines grouped under four academic schools. The Division also has several research units, and commercial/equipment units which embody staff and research activities.

Au Reikura School of Computing and Mathematical Sciences comprises of a number of Academic Programmes including, Mathematics, Data Analytics, Computer Science, and Software

Engineering. The School offers a range of qualifications at undergraduate, post-graduate and professional training levels.

2. POSITION PURPOSE

To contribute to the teaching, postgraduate supervision and administration requirements of the School, maintain and develop original scholarship and research, and undertake professional/community/iwi service activities relevant to the profession or discipline.

Many of the tasks in the Lecturer to Professor range are common to each level, but as staff members advance in their careers they are expected to perform the tasks at a higher level. This may be evidenced by an increase in the quality of teaching performance; a greater contribution to the advancement of the discipline through achievements in research and scholarship and/or artistic or professional practice; increased leadership; and a greater contribution to university administration and academic matters more generally.

3. ACCOUNTABILITY

The Senior Lecturer is responsible to the Vice-Chancellor through their Head of School or equivalent who in turn is responsible to the Vice-Chancellor through the appropriate Pro Vice-Chancellor.

4. KEY RELATIONSHIPS:

Pro Vice-Chancellor
Head of School or equivalent
Other Division staff
Students
Relevant Research Institutes and Centres and external research agencies
External stakeholders

5. KEY RESPONSIBILITIES

Having regard to the aims, objectives and long-term strategic goals of the School, Division and University, the primary objectives required of a Senior Lecturer include the following:

Teaching and Learning

- Prepare and deliver research-informed lectures and/or seminars and, as appropriate, conduct and/or co-ordinate tutorials, practical classes, demonstrations, or workshops.
- Contribute to or be responsible for paper co-ordination and delivery. This includes: administration; initiating and developing material; appraisal, review and evaluation of programmes and papers; development of the curriculum; developing and delivering on-line papers, where appropriate; and updating teaching resources and materials.
- Carry out marking and assessment activities including the setting of examinations.
- Be readily available to advise and meet with students including maintaining regular office hours.

Supervision

- Supervise honours, graduate and postgraduate students.
- Where appropriate, be Chief Supervisor for PhD students.

Research

- Maintain an active research programme and conduct quality research and contribute to knowledge development through scholarship and publication. This will include involvement in research projects and attendance and presentation at academic conferences, and may include leadership of a research team.
- Build and maintain national and international research collaborations which enhance the profile and reputation of the University.
- Where appropriate, seek external research funding for specific projects and submit grant applications.
- Where appropriate, engage in knowledge transfer and commercialisation activities.

Service and Administration

- Participate in professional and/or community/iwi and/or outreach activities relevant to the School.
- Carry out broad administrative functions including active and constructive participation at Programme or School meetings and undertake administration, planning and/or committee work where appropriate.
- Participate in University-wide committees and working groups and/or represent the University externally as appropriate.

Other

- Participate in the maintenance of a safe and healthy work environment for self and others including students. Comply with and undertake responsibilities set out in the University's Health and Safety Policy.
- Any other duties as required that are consistent with the position held, other than in exceptional circumstances such as rehabilitation after injury or sickness.

NOTE: Staff have annual objectives, development and reflection (ODR) meetings with their manager. New staff normally attend such a meeting approximately three months after taking up their appointment.

6. PERFORMANCE STANDARDS

The Senior Lecturer will be performing satisfactorily when:

- Teaching and associated duties are fulfilled to a high level as defined by School norms and expectations including paper appraisal and teaching evaluation.
- Student learning, at all levels, is appropriately facilitated in accordance with the School, Division and University goals and objectives.
- Personal and/or team research and scholarship activities yield demonstrable outcomes normally evidenced by continued publications in books and refereed journals, presentation or publication of conference papers and/or performance/works of art/other non-print media outcomes, as appropriate. An established research and publishing record or the equivalent has emerged and there is evidence of an active programme of scholarship and research.
- Research collaborations are developed.
- Research grant applications are submitted.

- Regular contributions are made to appropriate professional and/or community/iwi groups and/or in a public service or University or national representation capacity.
- Regular contributions are made to School and Division administration, as appropriate, relative to workload norms and expectations.
- Safe and healthy work practices are followed. University policies and procedures, relevant work standards and statutory obligations are complied with.
